MURRAY COUNTY DEMOCRATS

Pledge Their Allegiance to, and Their Approval of Constitution as Written by Convention—Harmony Exists in the County.

Ardmoreite Special.
Davis, I. T., April 14.—A well attended meeting of the democrats on Sulphur Springs was held in Harper opera house at Sulphur, and after listening to a well received address from Hon. S. M. Rutherford of Muskogee, candidate for United States senator, adopted resolutions as follows:
"That we pledge our allegiance, and approval of the constitution as written by the constitutional convention at Guthrie, and that we approve of Murray county as proposed by the convention at present, and that we will plead and use our efforts as democrats and as candidates for the several offices in Murray county to have the county increased in area, as provided for by the constitutional convention, before the first legislature of the state."
The democracy of the county is harmonious, in fact has never been divided, though some of the citizens of the county differ in their opinions, but now all will join in an effort to elect the very best officers that can be found in the county, and to make Murray county the best that can be made of it, and in time as provided by the constitution increase the size of the county.

SUBSTITUTE FOR BONE.

New York Surgeons Perform a Novel Operation.

New York, April 14.—The surgeons of St. Gregory's hospital performed an operation yesterday on a 6-year-old Italian boy, Peter Lepari of Brooklyn, by which they replaced a portion of a necrotic bone of the left forearm with a substance known as "bone wax," which will in time, the surgeons say, turn into bone. The entire staff of the hospital was present.

The surgeons said that the operation was one of the first of its kind in this country and without doubt it will be a success.

When the boy was brought to the hospital it was found that he was suffering from a tubercular bone in the forearm. Decomposition had set in. To prevent the loss of the use of the arm and the complete removal of the bone, it was decided to bring the "bone wax" into use. An X-Ray will be used daily to watch the progress of healing.

"Bone wax" was discovered by a German chemist ten years ago and has been used in Vienna.

AN INSIDIOUS DANGER.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Hoffman Drug Co. and City Drug Store.

John H. Reagan Monument.

Palestine, Texas, April 13.—The council met Wednesday, Judge H. W. Brown addressed the body regarding the location of the John H. Reagan monument to be erected in this city on which work is to begin at an early date.

Mrs. Steve Horn and Mrs. Coral Ozmment, president of the monument committee, were also present, representing the daughters of the Confederacy, who have the work in charge.

It was the desire of the monument committee, as explained by Judge Brown, to place the monument at the intersection of Palmer and Spring streets on the apex of the Spring street paving. The permission was granted by the council by a unanimous vote.

INDIGESTION.

With its companions, heart burn, flatulence, torpidity of the liver, constipation, palpitation of the heart, poor blood, headache and other nervous symptoms, sallow skin, foul tongue, offensive breath and a legion of other ailments, is at once the most widespread and destructive malady among the American people. The Herbine treatment will cure all these troubles. 50c bottle. Sold by F. J. Ramsey.

Every man is willing to take chances of being ruined by prosperity.

STONING A TIGER.

The Punishment of a Man Eater That Killed a Tibetan.

Fifty years ago tigers were very common even in the high hills of western Tibet, writes C. A. Sherring in his account of that country. At the present time, however, owing to the increase of population and the general spread of cultivation, they have become rare, and the appearance of a man eater who carried off a poor old woman on the slope of Chipla created consternation.

On the following day there were gathered together a hundred grim men, armed only with axes and stones, for they had not a gun among them.

Fortune favored the brave, for the tiger was found asleep under a rock. At once each man dropped silently into the cover of the brushwood and piled a heap of stones near to his hand, while one of the most trusted of the party was commissioned to stalk to the top of the rock and drop a huge stone on the sleeping brute.

So well was the work done that the stone fell true on the tiger's back, and immediately, with a roar, the wounded beast sprang up and, seeing his enemies, who leaped from their cover, charged the line.

But a hundred men, desperate as to consequences, throwing stones with might and main, are not to be awed or turned from their purpose lightly. The stones broke the tiger's teeth and went into his mouth, and his body soon became a mass of wounds.

Turning, he tried to escape and took his pursuers up hill for a mile, but wherever he paused and whatever he did he could not escape the pitiless rain of missiles. The blow on his back, first given, effectively checked his speed, and finally, worn out, he came to bay under a great cliff.

The rest was easy. He was immediately hemmed in, and the stones were showered on him thicker than ever and hurled with redoubled energy. As he sank down the villagers rushed in and dispatched him with their axes.—Youth's Companion.

A RHETORICAL TRIUMPH.

Sheridan's Speech in Connection With the Hastings Trial.

Answering a correspondent who asked about the speech of Sheridan in connection with the Warren Hastings trial, the London News says:

"That immense rhetorical triumph was certainly not reported in the notes in question, for the Oude speech was not delivered during the trial. Sheridan pronounced it in the house of commons in the year before the trial in moving that the Oude charge should be one of the articles of the impeachment."

"No speech recorded in our history ever had such a reception. The entire house and all in the galleries violated the traditions of parliament and set a precedent that remains unfollowed by clapping furiously and continuously. Pitt, fully conscious of the extraordinary state of excitement disclosed by this breach of decorum, moved the adjournment on the unparalleled ground that 'the minds of members were too agitated to discuss the question with coolness and judicially.' Sheridan had spoken for five hours and forty minutes. No full report of the speech exists. The best appeared in the London Chronicle for Feb. 8, 1787."

"The fame of the speech was such that when the trial came on £50 was gladly paid for a seat in the hall on the day of Sheridan's speech as a manager of the impeachment. Macaulay's account of that speech, which is both misleading and inaccurate in several respects, at least permits us to know the fact that the speaker was publicly embraced by Burke on resuming his seat. At a later stage in the trial—six years later, in fact—Sheridan delivered another speech which was described by one of the auditors as an extraordinary rhetorical triumph."

The Cinchona Tree.

The cultivation of the cinchona tree is one of the principal industries of Java, and the chemical process adopted by the Dutch for the preparation of the drug is said to produce the best sulphate of quinine procurable. This is carried out in Holland, whither the bark is stripped from the trees and dried is exported. Cinchona plantations are frequent on the lower hills throughout Java, and the trees are of all sizes, from the mere sapling up to thirty feet high.

To Make the Job Complete.

"I wish you would see what is the matter with this," said the customer, handing his watch across the showcase. "It has stopped. Perhaps there's a hair tangled up in the balance wheel."

The jeweler opened it, screwed his eyeglass into place and made the customary horrible grimace at the helpless watch.

"A hair!" he said. "There's a lock of 'em."

"Well, give it a shampoo."
